JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa

A Golfer's dream vacation come true

JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa view from TPC Las Vegas.

by Nancy G. Howard

All right my readers, I've found the perfect spot to take your family for an extended stay vacation with all the amenities, fun and relaxation your family of non-golfers could wish for and all the golfing you could dream of, all at the same time. This is a golfer's dream vacation come true!

With gas prices and air fares accelerating out of sight, Vegas offers a quick easy drive or an inexpensive flight from Arizona to help the family stretch out their budget. Now, I know your family might be thinking beaches with thousands of people, however I've found the perfect oasis with guaranteed sunshine so that you and the family can experience all the excitement, golf, pool, spa, outdoor activities, gaming and night life you can imagine while relaxing at the same time, without the thousands of

Cooler Summer Golf Destination: Albuquerque and Sandia Resort & Casino

One of the coolest summer golf destinations close to Arizona is Albuquerque, New Mexico. Spectacular high desert golf, cool temps and great values highlight this emerging golf destination anchored by the Sandia Resort & Casino. Located just minutes from the Albuquerque airport, Sandia Resort & Casino features a world class golf experience that offers a visually stunning and strategic golf course designed by Scott Miller, complete practice facility and a 16,000 square foot "Pueblo" style clubhouse featuring restaurant, "Top 100" golf shop and expansive patio. Sandia opened in 2005 to rave reviews having been honored by Golf Magazine as one of the Top 10 Best New Courses you can play and winning the 2005 golf "Development of the Year" award from Golf Inc Magazine.

Stretching from 4,900 to over 7,700 yards from the back tees and routed through the rugged, high-desert landscape,
