LAS VEGAS—Sheltered from the distractions of the Las Vegas Strip, yet close enough to the action to take in the sights and sounds, JW Marriott Las Vegas Resort & Spa is an ideal locale for corporate meetings and banquets. The Conference and Banquet Center features 35 function rooms with over 100,000 square feet of flexible indoor and outdoor function space.

According to General Manager, Jim Rose, incentive groups, associations and corporations account for a major portion of the resort's clientele. With the JW Marriott's well-appointed facilities and helpful staff, business groups can rest assured that their meeting or banquet will be a success. "Meeting planners enjoy our first-class meeting and conference facilities," notes Rose, "and we offer easy access to outstanding recreation and leisure options."

The JW Marriott's Conference and Banquet Center features four ballrooms with various additional breakout rooms to choose from and a full-service business center. The Marquis Ballroom has 14,627 square feet of beautifully appointed meeting space with a state-of-the-art sound system, high-speed internet access, and 48 NIC rated air walls. The elegant 14,409 square foot Grand Ballroom, with built-in theatrical stage and gracious reception foyers, is perfect for corporate meetings, elaborate dinners, banquets and weddings. The 12,320 square-foot Valencia Ballroom features a dramatic 30-foot vaulted rustic timber ceiling with Mediterranean décor and three sides of floor-to-ceiling arched windows. Spectacular views of the Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area and The Las Vegas Strip create an amazing backdrop for any event, and French Doors open onto a scenic outdoor event space. The Valencia Ballroom comfortably holds up to 1,000 guests for stand-up receptions and 500 people for sit down functions. The Marbella can house as many as 150 people for a sit down event with dance floor and is the perfect venue for a formal event.

The resort's technical staff of savvy professionals is on hand to assist in the use of the facility's state-of-the-art audio/visual equipment, to oversee technological connectivity, and to offer assistance with sophisticated presentations and displays.

In addition to the Conference and Banquet Center, corporate travelers will appreciate the resort's full-service business center, complete with an executive boardroom. Guest rooms are equipped with state-of-the-art business-friendly amenities such as dual-line telephones for modem or fax, personalized voicemail and e-mail, and guest services via
